

my phone number is mine i bought, i pay for it my car is mine i bought it i pay for it sure i have to pay road taxes at the pump and when buying a plate but no one can just jump in and drive it my phone number is mine why should any one be able to call it i give my number to friend and family or to a client thats why i have a phone no one want to listen to a high pressure sales man